

All of the Days (Psalms 27:4)

D                    A D                    A
One thing have I desired of the Lord
D            A            G A
That will I seek after
D            A                    D                    A
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
G            A                    D
All of the days of my life.

G            D            A                    D
To behold            the beauty of the Lord
G                    D                    A
To behold Him            in all His glory
G            D            G                    A
To enquire            in His holy place
G            A            G                    A            G                    A
All of the days, All of the days, All of the days
of my life.

D                    G                    D
All of my days I'll sing your praise
G                    D
that I may one day see your face
G                    A                    D
Oh Lord, all of the days of my life.
